31. A public school or an assisted school existing at the commencement of this Act is deemed to have been established by this Act and shall continue as a school under this Act.

Public school

32. (1) There may be established a public school.

(2) The Minister shall maintain a public school at the public expense.

(3) The Minister shall have control of a public school and he or she may be assisted in the overall administration and management of a school by the Department, a Board of Management, the Education Advisory Board or a council or committee established under this Act.

(4) A secondary school that is a public school may offer a tertiary course of study.

Private school

33. There may be established a private school.

Denominational school

34.(1) There may be established a private school which is a denominational school managed and maintained by a denominational body at its own expense.

(2)The proprietor of a denominational school may agree in writing with the Minister to become an assisted school.

(3) Notwithstanding that the denominational school receives a Government grant, a subsidy or another form of financial assistance for its management and maintenance, the denominational school is deemed to retain its status as a denominational school.

Permit to operate private school

35. (1) A person shall not operate a private school unless the person is the holder of a permit issued by the Minister.

(2) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars or imprisonment for three months and, in the case of a continuing offence, is liable to a further fine of two hundred dollars for each day during which the offence continues after the conviction.

Application for permit to operate private school

36 (1) A person may apply to the Minister for a permit to operate a private school.

(2) An application for a permit to operate shall be in the prescribed form.

(3) In determining the application, the Minister shall consider if –

- (a) the criteria for admission and access by a student is equal, equitable and inclusive;
- (b) the premises are suitable, safe and secure;
- (c) the furniture and facilities are adequate and suitable having regard to the number and ages of the students expected to attend;
- (d) the accommodation provided is adequate and suitable having regard to the number, age and sex of the students expected to attend;
- (e) the qualification and number of teachers and administrators are equal to that provided in an equivalent public school having regard to the age of the students expected to attend;
- (f) the terms and conditions of employment of the teachers are fair;
- (g) there is adequate land for the recreation of a student;
- (h) the National Curriculum or another curriculum is satisfactory having regard to the age of the students expected to attend;

- (i) the teaching practices and assessment methods are satisfactory having regard to the age of the students expected to attend;
- (j) the proprietor or the principal is a qualified and fit and proper person; and
- (k) the school will have at its disposal adequate human, learning and financial resources for dispensing the service for which the permit is issued.

(4) In order to determine the suitability of the premises of the school, the Minister shall cause an inspection to be carried out.

Grant, refusal and transfer of permit to operate private school

37. (1) If the Minister is satisfied that the applicant meets the requirements for the grant of a permit, the Minister shall grant a permit.

(2) If the Minister is not satisfied that the applicant meets the requirements for the grant of a permit, the Minister may request further information or he or she shall refuse the application.

(3) If the Minister refuses an application for a permit, the Minister shall notify the applicant in writing, giving reasons for the refusal.

(4) A holder of a permit may apply to amend or renew a permit granted under this section in the prescribed manner.

(5) An applicant aggrieved by a decision of the Minister under this section may appeal to the Education Appeals Tribunal.

(6) A permit shall not be transferred except with the written authorisation of the Minister.

Existing private school

38. (1) A person who, at the commencement of this Act, operates a private school shall comply with section 36(1) within six months of commencement of this Act or a further period as the Minister may, by Notice in the Gazette, allow.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars or imprisonment for three months and, in the case of a continuing offence, is liable to a further fine of two hundred for each day during which the offence continues after the conviction.

Register of private school

39. (1) The Chief Education Officer shall keep a register of a private school in the prescribed form.

(2) The register shall contain the particulars of every private school for which a permit has been issued.

(3) When a permit is granted, a private school is deemed registered.

(4) The Chief Education Officer shall issue a certificate annually to a registered school and publish a list of the registered schools in the Gazette.

(5) The Chief Education Officer may amend the register and issue a new certificate.

Information

40. A proprietor shall inform the Minister—

(a) of a change which renders the information provided for the issue, renewal or amendment of a permit inaccurate or incomplete;

(b) if the private school cannot provide a service for which the permit is issued; and

(c) of an amalgamation, sale or transfer affecting the private school.

Notice to comply

41. (1) If the Minister believes that a private school registered under this Act is operating contrary to this Act, the Minister shall serve on the proprietor notice, in writing, to comply, -

(a) requiring him or her within the time specified in the notice to conduct the school in accordance with this Act;

(b) informing him or her of the intention of the Minister to revoke the permit unless the breach is rectified.

(2) The Minister may extend the period of time specified in the notice to comply as he or she considers necessary.

Revocation of permit

42. (1) The Minister shall give a proprietor an opportunity to be heard prior to revoking a permit.

(2) Unless the proprietor satisfies the Minister of a reason why the permit should not be revoked, the Minister shall —

(a) revoke the permit to operate and cancel the registration;

(b) give reasons for the revocation in writing; and

(c) inform the proprietor of his or her right to appeal.

(3) The Minister shall ensure that satisfactory arrangements are made for the accommodation of the students on revocation of a permit.

Appeal

43. (1) A person whose application under section 36(1), is refused or whose permit to operate is revoked, may appeal to the Education Appeals Tribunal.

(2) In the case of a refusal, the person may appeal on the ground that —

(a) the reason given for the refusal is not a valid reason for refusal under the Act;

(b) the inspection of the school carried out under section 36(4) was not adequate; or

(c) that there is no evidence available to support the refusal.

- (3) In the case of a revocation, the proprietor may appeal on the ground that —
- (a) a notice to comply was not served on the proprietor;
 - (b) the time specified in the notice to comply served under section 41 is unreasonable;
 - (c) the proprietor has complied with the notice to comply served under section 41; or
 - (d) that there is no evidence available to support the revocation.
- (4) If an appeal is against the revocation of a permit the Minister may not enforce the revocation until the appeal is determined.
- (5) If an appeal against a revocation is dismissed, the registration of the school is cancelled from the date of the order.

Closure of private school and re-application

- 44.(1) A private school shall be closed from the date on which the permit to operate is revoked.
- (2) If the permit to operate of a private school is revoked, the proprietor may re-apply to the Minister for a permit to operate.

Assisted school

45. (1) An assisted school is established by an agreement in writing between the Minister and a proprietor.
- (2) The Minister or the proprietor may terminate the agreement by giving the other party at least three years' notice.
- (3) In an agreement under this section, a private school agrees, in writing, -
- (a) to receive public funds for –
 - (i) the maintenance of the school,
 - (ii) the provision of school furniture or equipment,
 - (iii) the building or rebuilding of a school or the building or rebuilding to an extension to the school,
 - (iv) the payment of the salaries of the staff, and
 - (v) another purpose approved by the Minister; or
 - (b) for the premises to be jointly owned by the Government and the proprietor;
 - (c) for the management to be shared between the Minister and the proprietor;
 - (d) to purpose specified under paragraph (a); or
 - (e) that a school owned by the Government is an assisted school.

Publication of list of assisted schools

46. The Minister shall publish a list of assisted schools in the Gazette by July 31 of each year and shall cause the list to be circulated to a public school and an assisted school.

Religious education in assisted school

47. (1) If an assisted school is owned or managed by a denominational body, the denominational body shall be responsible for organising and providing religious instruction to a student in accordance with a curriculum set by the denominational body.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a student shall not be compelled to receive religious education or take part in a religious ceremony.

Loan guarantee to assisted school

48. (1) The proprietor or the Board of Management of an assisted school may apply to the Minister to guarantee a loan from a commercial bank for the purpose of improving or extending the buildings of the assisted school or build a new school to replace an assisted school that has been decommissioned.

(2) If on consideration of an application for a loan under this section, the Minister is satisfied that the purpose for which the loan is required ought to be carried out and that the amount required may properly be obtained by borrowing, the Minister may arrange with the proprietor and the Board of Management to guarantee a loan on terms and conditions as may be agreed by the parties and in accordance with the Public Finance Management Act, No. 14 of 2020.

Visit and inspection of school

49 (1) The principal of a school shall keep the school open during school hours to facilitate a visit and an inspection by—

- (a) the Minister;
- (b) the Chief Education Officer;
- (c) a Board of Management; or
- (d) another person authorised in writing by the Minister or the Chief Education Officer.

(2) A person authorised under subsection (1)(a) - (d), shall visit and inspect a school at a time and in the manner prescribed.

(3) A person who visits and inspects a school under subsection (1) (a) - (d) –

- (a) shall present official identification to the principal, proprietor or person in charge;
- (b) may question a student on a subject taught at the school;
- (c) may assist and guide a teacher employed at the school on the conduct and efficient practices at the school;
- (d) may advise the principal of the school on a matter relating to the welfare and development of the school; and
- (e) shall provide the Minister, a Board of Management or a proprietor, with a report on the school.

(4) A person shall not obstruct a person authorised under this section to visit and inspect a school during a visit and inspection of the school.

(5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars and in the case of a second or subsequent conviction to a term of imprisonment of six months.

Division 2

Homeschooling

Application for homeschooling

50. (1) A parent who wishes to homeschool his or her child shall apply in writing to the Chief Education Officer for approval.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall -

- (a) be made at least three months prior to the commencement of homeschooling or at any other time permitted by the Chief Education Officer; and

- (b) be accompanied by an educational plan that -
 - (i) complies with the goals and objectives of the National Curriculum,
 - (ii) provides details of the educational level of the proposed teacher; and
 - (iii) contains a description of the learning activities for the child.

(3) The Chief Education Officer shall, in writing, approve or deny the application for homeschooling.

(4) An approval for homeschooling is valid for a period of one year and may be renewed annually.

(5) The Chief Education Officer shall maintain a register of homeschooled children.

(6) The Chief Education Officer may grant a homeschooled child access to educational resource materials and use of school facilities and equipment of a public school.

(7) The parent of a homeschooled child shall prepare and submit an annual report on the progress of his or her child no later than June 30 of each school year.

(8) The Chief Education Officer may request an academic assessment of a child approved for homeschooling subject to the payment of a prescribed fee and shall —

- (a) communicate the results to his or her parent;
- (b) advise the parent if, in the opinion of the Chief Education Officer, the child is not making reasonable progress; and
- (c) make recommendations to assist the child in improving.

Visit and inspection of homeschooled child

51. (1) Section 49 applies, with the necessary adjustments, to a child being homeschooled.

(2) A person conducting a visit and inspection of a homeschooled child shall give the parent of the homeschooled child reasonable notice of the intended visit and inspection.

(3) A visit or inspection to a homeschooled child shall be done at least once a year.

Termination of homeschooling

52. (1) The Chief Education Officer shall terminate homeschooling for a child by notice in writing if he or she is of the opinion, after considering the abilities of the child, or the findings of a visit and inspection concludes that—

- (a) the homeschooling no longer meets the requirements of the National Curriculum;
- (b) the student has failed to meet a satisfactory standard of achievement, as determined by an academic assessment; or
- (c) termination is necessary for the welfare of the child.

(2) If the Chief Education Officer terminates homeschooling of a child under subsection (1), the Chief Education Officer shall direct the parent, in writing, that the child attend a school.

(3) If the parent disagrees with the decision of the Chief Education Officer made under subsection (1), the parent may appeal to the Education Appeals Tribunal.

Revocation of member of Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council

58. The Minister may revoke the appointment of a member of the Council of Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education if he or she thinks fit.

Filling of vacancy on Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council

59. If a vacancy occurs in the membership of the Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council, the vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of a person in accordance with section 53(2) and the person shall hold office for the remainder of the period for which the member was appointed.

Leave of absence

60. The Minister may grant a leave of absence to a member of the Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council and may appoint a person to act temporarily in the place of that member.

Quorum of Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council

61. At a meeting of the Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council the quorum is six members.

Decision of Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council

62. (1) A decision of the Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council shall be by a majority of the votes of the members present and constituting a quorum.

(2) If the vote is tied, the chairperson, deputy chairperson or other member presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to an original vote.

Frequency of meeting of Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council

63. The Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council shall meet a minimum of four times in a school year, with additional meetings scheduled by mutual agreement of the chairperson and the Chief Education Officer.

Minutes of meeting of Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council

64. (1) The secretary of the Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council shall keep the minutes of the Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council and the minutes shall be confirmed at the next meeting and signed by the chairperson or other person presiding at that meeting and by the secretary.

(2) The chairperson shall submit a copy of the minutes of a meeting to the Chief Education Officer within one month of confirmation.

Procedure by Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council

65. Subject to this Part, the Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council shall regulate its own procedure.

Document and decision of Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council

66. A document and a decision of the Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council shall be signified by the chairperson or a member authorised to act or by the secretary.

Regulations for Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council

67. The Minister may make Regulations for the Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council.

Annual report of Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council

68. The Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council shall submit an annual report to the Minister no later than July 15 every year that summarises the deliberations, findings and recommendations of the Special Needs Education and Inclusive Education Council during the preceding school year.

Special needs education

69. (1) The Chief Education Officer shall provide a special needs education programme for a student by virtue of his or her special needs.

(2) A student under subsection (1) shall have a special needs education delivered in the least restrictive and most appropriate, enabling, inclusive and practical environment that best meets the individual learning needs of the student as determined by the Chief Education Officer.

(3) A student with special needs shall be educated together with other students unless the nature or degree of the exceptionality of the student is such that to do so is inconsistent with—

- (a) the best interests of the student as determined in accordance with a special needs assessment carried out under this Act; and
- (b) the effective provision of education for other students in the class.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Chief Education Officer may assign a student who is unable to be educated in accordance with subsection (3) to a special needs school.

(5) A special needs education programme may take the form of an individual education plan tailored to the needs of a student.

Referral prior to enrolment

71. If, prior to enrolment in a public school or an assisted school, the Chief Education Officer becomes aware that a parent wishes to enrol a student with special needs in a public school or an assisted school, the Chief Education Officer shall undertake the procedure for the determination of special needs of the child under section 73.

Referral of enrolled student

72. (1) If a student is enrolled at a public school or an assisted school, the principal—
- (a) may determine, after consultation with a parent and the educators, that the student may be suited for a special needs education programme; and
 - (b) shall refer the student, in writing, to the Chief Education Officer for a determination of special needs.
- (2) A parent may request the principal to refer his or her child to the Chief Education Officer for a determination of special needs of the student in accordance with this section;
- (3) If a principal does not refer the student to the Chief Education Officer under subsection (1) or (2), the parent may apply directly to the Chief Education Officer for a determination of special needs of the student.

Procedure for determination of special needs

- 73.(1) If a student is referred to the Chief Education Officer for a determination of special needs under sections 71 or 72, the Chief Education Officer shall—
- (a) consult with the parent and, if appropriate, the student;
 - (b) provide the parent with written information concerning the rights of the student to an inclusive education or to an education at a special needs school;
 - (c) cause a multidisciplinary assessment of the student to be made;
 - (d) seek professional advice from an expert including an educator, a health care practitioner and a social worker as may be appropriate;
 - (e) determine whether a special needs education programme must be provided for the student or if the student must be assigned to a special needs school; and
 - (f) provide the parent, in writing, with the results of the special needs assessment, an explanation of the special needs education plan designed for the student and information about the right of appeal to the Education Appeals Tribunal.
- (2) A parent shall consent in writing to a special needs assessment.

Appeal against determination of special needs

74. (1) A parent or a student may appeal to the Education Appeals Tribunal established under section 189 if the parent or the student disagrees with —
- (a) the special needs assessment;
 - (b) the determination of special needs; or
 - (c) the special needs education plan established for the student.
- (2) When a person appeals to the Education Appeals Tribunal from a decision made under section 73, the child shall not be enrolled in the special needs education programme until the Education Appeals Tribunal makes its decision.

Committee on special needs education

75. The Minister may —
- (a) convene a committee on special needs education to advise him or her on special needs education and inclusive education; and
 - (b) prescribe its membership, powers, functions and procedures.

- (g) the student is engaged in work-integrated learning or an educational training programme authorised by the principal; or
- (h) the student is excluded from attendance at school under any provision of this Act.

Failure of parent to enforce attendance

94. Subject to section 93, a parent who fails to cause his or her child of compulsory school age to attend school commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars.

School Attendance Officer

95. A School Attendance Officer is responsible for the enforcement of attendance in respect of a child of compulsory school age attending a school.

Duties and powers of School Attendance Officer

96. (1) A School Attendance Officer shall peruse a school register periodically to ascertain school attendance.

(2) A School Attendance Officer who has reasonable cause to believe that a parent may have contravened section 83(1) of this Act may serve a notice on a parent requiring the parent to satisfy the School Attendance Officer that the parent has caused the child to attend school.

(3) If a School Attendance Officer is not satisfied that the parent has caused the child to attend school, the School Attendance Officer may warn the parent in writing of the consequence of a failure to do so.

(4) If a parent fails to heed a warning under subsection (3), the School Attendance Officer shall report the matter to a principal and refer it to the district education officer.

(5) A School Attendance Officer may, —

- (a) at any place, question a child who appears to be of compulsory school age but is not at school about—
 - (i) his or her parent;
 - (ii) his or her age,
 - (iii) his or her name and address,
 - (iv) the school at which he or she is enrolled,
 - (v) the reason for his or her absence from school, and
 - (vi) any matter relevant to the questions he or she is authorised to ask under this section; and

- (b) make inquiries to determine whether a child frequents, visits, resides or is employed on particular premises;
- (c) inquire into each suspected case of failure of a parent to cause his or her child to attend school;
- (d) provide guidance and counselling to a child to encourage his or her attendance at school; and
- (e) at the request of a parent, or if the School Attendance Officer thinks it fit to do so, apprehend and deliver to the school from which the child is absent, or to his or her child, a child found absent from school without having been excused under section 93.

(6) A School Attendance Officer shall —

- (a) present official identification to a person in carrying out his or her duties;
- (b) seek permission to enter private premises, and not enter unless an adult in control of the premises first gives permission; and
- (c) report to the Chief Education Officer.

Offences against person enforcing attendance

97. (1) A person commits an offence if he or she —

- (a) assaults, obstructs or uses insulting, abusive or indecent language to—
 - (i) a School Attendance Officer in the execution of his or her duties, or
 - (ii) any other person executing a duty imposed by this Act, in relation to the attendance of a child at school;
- (b) being a parent, fails, without reasonable cause, having been requested by a School Attendance Officer to give any information concerning—
 - (i) the name, age, residence, enrolment or the attendance of a child at school, or
 - (ii) any other matter relevant to the attendance of a child at school; or
- (c) gives to a School Attendance Officer information concerning any matter mentioned in paragraph (b) knowing it to be false or misleading.

(2) A person who is convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars.

Prohibition against employment of child

98. (1) A person shall not employ a child of compulsory school age.

Prohibition against entertainment, gaming or sporting facility

99. (1) A person shall not permit a child to be admitted to a cinema, a show, an entertainment, gaming or sporting facility or other similar place at a time at which attendance at school is required unless authorised by the principal and supervised by a teacher.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of two thousand dollars or to imprisonment for twelve months.

Prohibition against loitering at bar

100. (1) A person shall not allow a child to loiter at a bar or place where the business of the sale of an alcoholic beverage for consumption is conducted.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of two thousand dollars or to imprisonment for twelve months.

Division 3 Records

School register

101. (1) The principal of a school shall maintain a register of students at the school known as the school register.

(2) The Minister may make Regulations prescribing the form of the school register.

School record

102. (1) A principal shall establish, maintain, secure and manage a school record for each student enrolled in a school.

(2) The record referred to in subsection (1) shall be in the form and contain the information that the Chief Education Officer determines.

(3) A school record is privileged for the information and use of a school and the Department as required for the performance a function under this Act and is not available to another person or institution without the written permission of a parent of a student, or an individual to whom the school record relates.

(4) A person who contributes information to a school record is exempt from liability with respect to the dissemination of that information if that person, in providing the information, acted—

- (a) in good faith;
- (b) within the scope of his or her duty and responsibility; and
- (c) with reasonable care.

(5) If, on examining a school record, a person authorised under this section to examine a school record is of the opinion that the school record contains inaccurate or incomplete information, that person may request the principal to rectify the school record.

(6) If the principal fails or refuses to rectify the school record the person who has requested the rectification may, within fourteen days of the failure or refusal, refer the matter to the Chief Education Officer who shall review the request and provide direction to the principal within fourteen days.

(7) If the person who has referred a matter to the Chief Education Officer under subsection (6), is dissatisfied with the disposition by the Chief Education Officer, that person may appeal to the Education Appeals Tribunal.

(8) A person who discloses information from a school record in contravention of subsection (3), commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars.

PART V

NATIONAL CURRICULUM, INSTRUCTION AND ASSESSMENT OF STUDENTS

National Curriculum

103. (1) The Minister shall prescribe an inclusive National Curriculum to guide all aspects of education at the primary and secondary stages for a public school or an assisted school.

(2) The curriculum established under subsection (1) shall be balanced and broadly based and shall —
